

Parapsychology, astrology, chiropractic, acupuncture, homeopathy, miracles, evolution–denial, perpetual motion, the origin of Hungarians, UFOs, secret documents, 2012 apocalyptic predictions, ghosts, mysticism

14th European Skeptics Congress

Budapest, 17-19 September 2010

Iván Almár – Hungary

The panic reaction of the press to news on celestial or extraterrestrial phenomena

Willem Betz – Belgium

European Union and Alternative Medicine

Christopher C. French – UK

Anomalistic psychology

J. Beth Ciesielski – Romania

Education in Romania

Luigi Garlaschelli – Italy

The making of the Shroud

Michael Heap – UK

The Politics of the Complementary and Alternative Medicine in the UK

Gerald de Jong – Netherlands

A Multi-Player Online Game to Raise Evolutionary Awareness

George Kampis – Hungary

Evolution, creationism

Beatrice Mautino and Stefano

Bagnasco – Italy

Solving Mysteries by Learning Science (and Vice versa)

Joe Nickell – USA

Undercover! Clandestine Paranormal
Investigations

Atila Nyerges – Romania

Mysticism in Nowadays Romania

Massimo Polidoro – Italy

Houdini: A Magician among the spirits

Gergely Röst– Hungary

Why useless treatments are so widespread?
Insights from a simple mathematical model

Klára Sándor– Hungary

Languages, families, and genes: the power of a metaphor

Amardeo Sarma – Germany

Should we change the rules of science for Parapsychology and CAM?

Klaus Schmeih – Germany

The Voynich Manuscript

Simon Singh – UK

Trick or Treatment?
Alternative Medicine on Trial

Gábor Szabó – Hungary

Phototherapy with the eye of the Physicist; who holds the burden of proof?

Tim Trachet – Belgium

Miracles and canonisations

István Vágó– Hungary

Pseudoscience in the Media

Andy Wilson – UK

How to take an "overdose":
The story of the 10:23 campaign

Tomasz Witkowski – Poland

Fashionable nonsense still in fashion.
Psychological Sokal-style hoax

Maciej D. Zatonski – Poland

Medicine – art, science or craft?

congress2010.skeptic.hu